TABLE PRAYER

Gracious God, we give you thanks for your beloved Son. We give you thanks for making us your own in the waters of baptism and naming us your beloved children. Transform our hearts daily to receive your word and boldly go into the world to live it out. Bless the food we are about to eat. May it strengthen us for service in your name. Amen.

The screen is smaller?!?!?!? Yes and No. Yes, the screen itself is “shorter.” No, the text size is not smaller. However, the number of lines on a screen is reduced by one and the number of letters across the screen is reduced by seven. Why? The Tech. Committee is testing screen sizes to accommodate future upgrades.

Craft Retreat – Registration is due today.

Transfiguration

Luke 9:28-45

Key Verse: Luke 9:29-30

Time: 27-30 C.E.

Since Last Week: Jesus continued to teach, preach, heal, and cast out demons. He also empowered the disciples to cast out demons and cure diseases, which they did while they spread the good news of Jesus throughout the lands. When Peter confessed that he believed Jesus to be the Messiah, Jesus started to speak of his death and resurrection.

Background: Jesus had just started to reveal a little about his divinity and role on earth to a few of his disciples. His Transfiguration revealed even more about who he was, placing him alongside the nation's most revered prophets in their history: Moses and Elijah.

Community: Who are your community's greatest leaders, past or present? How have they shaped your community? How might you become a leader in your community today?

At Home: How has God revealed truths about Jesus to you? (Scripture, people, worship, media?) How might you be intentional about giving time to those things that reveal Jesus to you this week?

Read This Week:

Monday: Who Is Greatest, Luke 9:46-48

Tuesday: Whoever Is Not Against You Is For You, Luke 9:49-50

Ash Wednesday: Jesus Sets His Face Toward Jerusalem, Luke 9:51-62

Thursday: Mission of the Seventy, Luke 10:1-12

Friday: Woes to Unrepentant Cities, Luke 10:13-16

Saturday: Seventy Return and Jesus Rejoices, Luke 10:17-24

Next Week: Parable: The Good Samaritan, Luke 10:25-42

Luke 9:28-45

²⁸Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. ³⁰Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. ³¹They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³²Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. ³³Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" — not knowing what he said. ³⁴While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. ³⁵Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen listen to him!"

³⁶When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

³⁷On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. ³⁸Just then a man from the crowd shouted, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. ³⁹Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. ⁴⁰I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." ⁴¹Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." ⁴²While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. ⁴³And all were astounded at the greatness of God.

While everyone was amazed at all that he was doing, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁴Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands. ⁴⁵But they did not understand this saying; its meaning was concealed from them, so that they could not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask him about this saying.
