CARING CONVERSATION:

Discuss in your household or small group:

- What is one of your strengths? What is one of your weaknesses?
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Christians in Corinth about his weaknesses (see 2 Corinthians 12:7-10). Paul learned that God’s power was “made perfect in weakness.” In what ways do our weaknesses reveal God’s strength?
- Have you experienced the power of Christ at work in your times of weakness?

DEVOTIONS:

During this week, make a list of the ways you see God’s power at work, such as in nature, in other people, and in events around you. Give thanks for those things. Look up and discuss these verses that speak of God’s power: Matthew 19:26; 1 Chronicles 29:12; 1 Corinthians 1:25; Psalm 89:8-9,11,13; Isaiah 40:28-31.

SERVICE:

One way God helps us in our times of weakness is through the encouragement of others. Individually, and as a family, identify someone who could use some encouragement from you. Make a plan to extend that encouragement this week.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS:

In the Sunday Gospel reading, Mark tells us that when Jesus went to his home of Nazareth, people did not accept him or welcome his message (see Mark 6:1-6). Unlike the people of Nazareth, we want to always welcome Jesus into our lives. Give each family member a large piece of construction paper with which to design a “Welcome Jesus” placemat. Work together on making one additional placemat. Use your placemats when setting the table for family meals. Set an extra place for Jesus.
